Mr. David Cheslock

Dear David:

First, I hope that you and Donna and your family have had a blessed Christmas, and we wish for you a Happy New Year.

On November 29, 2007, I "e mailed" to you a note of thanks for your November 27, 2007 mailing to me about the Jonathan W. Childs family, for which I thank you very much. Since I did not receive any indication to the contrary, I assume that my November 29, 2007 "e mail" did get through to you; however, in case it did not, I enclose herewith another copy.

When we last spoke together over the telephone, I had mentioned to you the "line of descent" of a Mr. George Anderson Wolf, now deceased, of Altoona, Pennsylvania (who had been the first, or earliest, of the "Pennsylvania" Andersons to contact Mrs. DuLaney, as early as 1949, soon after the "release" of her little book, Andersons from the Great Fork of the Patuxent). It had always been my belief and understanding (from Mrs. DuLaney) that Mr. Wolf was endeavoring to "place" his line with, among, and as a part of the line of William (IV) Anderson.

The SAR Chapter at Altoona, PA, has a "web site", which lists its (at least early) members, including Mr. Wolf, so I contacted the SAR Headquarters in Louisville for a copy of Mr. Wolf's Accepted Membership Application, and I have now, at last, assembled copies of both his original application (tracing his female line of descent from a Peter McGuire) as well as his Supplemental Application (of the same date) tracing his paternal line of descent from James Anderson (brother of William (IV) Anderson). Both applications were accepted on July 20 and July 28, 1954, respectively.

His claimed line of descent from James (brother of William (IV)) represents the first, as far as I am aware, claim of descent from that particular James Anderson.

I thought that this might be of particular interest to you, for a couple of reasons: first, I believe you had mentioned that you were familiar with the Wolf Furniture Stores in and around Altoona, PA. I believe it is still owned and operated by that family. I believe they have a "web site." I recall speaking by telephone a number of years ago (after I had learned that Mr. Wolf had "passed on") with his sister, Marie Wolf Riley, in Clearfield, PA.

Second, Mr. Wolf and his family were and are Roman Catholics (which might explain why or how, to some extent, there may have not been much "Nineteenth century" contact between these two "lines" of Andersons, even though both were living in the same locations, generally speaking, in Pennsylvania.

One thing about all of this which I recall this morning from my discussions with Mrs. DuLaney about all of this years ago: Mr. Wolf had called upon the late James M. McIntyre, of Six Mile Run, whose wife and widow was Alberta McIntyre, and it was to her home that my wife and I initially drove on our 1981 trip and visit to that area. In due course that day, Mrs. McIntyre took us over to the home of her late husband's aunt, Gladys Shuke McIntyre, who was the then somewhat elderly lady who gave me a copy of the little published Horton genealogy by George W. Alloway. Actually it was mailed to me a little while later by Mrs. Alberta McIntyre. They took us all around that day and showed us many things and places, and we have some photographs. It was Mrs. Gladys Shuke McIntyre who recalled the occasion when (in the 1920s) the late Mrs. A. F. Anderson visited the Broad Top from Seward, Nebraska.

So - assuming that Mr. Wolf has correctly determined his Anderson pedigree - that means that we have located information about two of the sons of William (III) Anderson and Elizabeth (Edwards) Anderson, his first wife, who went to Pennsylvania, which leaves only one other son, a Samuel Anderson, of that same couple (whose wife was also a Taylor from Prince George's County, Maryland, about whom we need to locate more information.

I have not heard recently from Mrs. Cramm about what plans they might have to do further "ground searching" for what remains of Colonel Ephraim Foster Anderson's place of interment, but I assume that they have plans. Will keep you informed if, as, and when I hear anything. I recently "e mailed" her (see copy enclosed).

Yours very truly,

Marvin H. Anderson
